

Trial Terms

By using the Spectrus JS Trial Environment (“application”) you agree to these terms and conditions and if you are using this in the course of your duties as an employee or officer of an organization, you also accept them on behalf of your organization. If you do not agree to these terms and conditions do not use the application. This environment is only to be used by authorized persons evaluating Spectrus JS. It should only be used with non-proprietary non-confidential datasets and information AND NOT with sensitive or confidential data.

Access and Use Restrictions

The application is for evaluation purposes only and not to be used as a production system, or for diagnostics purposes. Evaluation of the application may be conditional upon the User accepting additional EULA conditions, otherwise the application cannot be accessed and tested. Availability of the application will be at ACD/Labs sole discretion and access may be terminated without notice or cause. At the end of the trial, any and all data and results that were produced with the application must be destroyed by the termination date of the trial, unless otherwise approved by ACD/Labs in writing. You agree to provide feedback to ACD/Labs only about the results of your evaluation. You acknowledge that you will not publicize the results of your evaluation to anyone outside your organization, without obtaining written approval first from ACD/Labs.

No Warranty

The application is licensed “as is” and without warranty or representation of any kind, either expressed or implied, including, but not limited to the implied warranties of non-infringement, merchantability, and fitness for a particular purpose. We do not warrant that the application will meet all or any of your requirements, that the operation of the application will be uninterrupted or error free, or that any defect in the application will be corrected. We make no warranties or representations relating to the results of the use of the software with respect to its capability, correctness, accuracy, reliability or otherwise. You assume the entire risk as to your use, results and performance of the application within the Trial Environment.

Limitation of Liability

In no event will ACD/Labs be liable for any damages whatsoever including (i) direct damages, (ii) lost revenue, profit or data, or, (iii) special, indirect, consequential, incidental or punitive damages, however caused, whether foreseeable or not, regardless of the theory of liability, arising out of or related to the use of, or inability to use, the application, regardless of whether ACD/Labs has been advised of the possibility of such damages. In no event will ACD/Labs be liable to you the user or your organization, whether in contract, tort (including negligence), or otherwise.
